future.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

For nearly 150 years, Claflin University has nurtured a standard for excellence in higher education. We greatly appreciate the overwhelming support the University continues to receive from its various stakeholders, including faculty, staff, students, alumni, corporations, and foundations. It is extremely gratifying for the overwhelming support the University continues to receive from its various stakeholders, including faculty, staff, students, alumni, corporations, and foundations. I am convinced one of the reasons is the University is an invaluable investment in the future of our nation.

Thanks to your support, Claflin University is building a stronger future. Contributions from donors have enabled the University to offer scholarships to the best and brightest and others who seek a high-quality education. Taught by a world class faculty, our students will be prepared and qualified to assume leadership roles for the global challenges ahead.

Your support is greatly appreciated. I am hopeful that Claflin University can count on you in the future in efforts to be recognized as a leading 21st Century institution of higher education that develops a diverse and inclusive community of globally engaged visionary leaders.

As stated earlier, our nation's future depends on students like those attending Claflin University – gifted and talented visionary leaders who will make advancements in research, societal issues and public service. I assure you of our commitment to continue to produce the next generation of change agents for the world. Your sustained support will enable the University to continue its upward trajectory to higher levels of distinction and recognition.

The following pages demonstrate our gratitude for your investment in Claflin University.

Sincerely,

Henry N. Tisdale, '65
President

Brianna Williams, '18, and Trisana Fairweather, '18

Brianna Williams and Trisana Fairweather achieved 4.0 cumulative grade point averages and were presented Presidential Academic Excellence Awards during Claflin's 2018 Commencement Convocation. Williams and Fairweather are attending graduate school and both were members of the Alice Carson Tisdale Honors College. Williams is in the master's program for psychology and counseling at the University of Illinois. Fairweather is pursuing a master's degree in accounting at Indiana University.

"I am very excited about everything I accomplished at Claflin," said Fairweather, who delivered the "Senior Challenge." She was Claflin's first-ever NCAA Division II national champion and All-American in track in the 200 meters.

"I came to Claflin on an academic scholarship and joined the track program as a walk-on. I did not come here expecting to become a national champion but working hard, training hard, and doing my best enabled me to excel," said Fairweather.

Fairweather also received scholarship support from the Passport to College program, a non-profit organization that provides opportunities for qualified students from developing countries who are strong in STEM to attend college.

As a first-generation graduate, Fairweather understands what her degree means to her family. "The commencement was a one-in-a-million, extraordinary event for my family," said Fairweather. "My mother could not make the trip from Jamaica, but she was able to watch the live streaming of the ceremony on the computer. She was very, very happy and excited."

Williams described her Claflin experience as "academically stimulating" and said that her mentors and advisors contributed to her success in the classroom and her personal development.

"Claflin has prepared me with the skills to navigate in a world of diverse attitudes and cultures," Williams said. "Claflin taught me how to think critically as a visionary leader and transformed me into a responsible adult ready to affect positive change in the world."

Williams plans on earning a doctorate in counseling psychology. Next, she wants to become a college professor and move up through the ranks in higher education administration.

"After teaching, I want to be a provost or possibly a university president," said Williams.

Hillary Mokaya, '18

On September 18, 2017, The White House Initiative on Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) announced its 2017 list of HBCU All-Stars. Hillary Mokaya, '18, a business administration major from Nairobi, Kenya, was one of the 62 students who was recognized as a 2017 HBCU All-Stars for his outstanding accomplishments.

The All-Stars are appointed for one year to serve as ambassadors of the White House Initiative on HBCUs. The All-Stars provide outreach opportunities and communications to their fellow students about the value of education and the Initiative as a networking resource. Selected from a wide-range of applicants, the All-Stars came highly recommended from HBCU administrators and proved impressive beyond their resumes, transcripts and thorough applications.

Mokaya is currently working at PricewaterhouseCoopers, which is recognized as the second largest professional services firm in the world, and is one of the Big Four among global accounting firms. Mokaya, who graduated in May 2018 with a degree in business administration, was the company's first campus hire in their New Ventures program.

Mokaya said that he was very shy when he arrived at Claflin. However, he now has the "Claflin Confidence," and he is ready for the challenges and opportunities that lie ahead.

While at Claflin, Mokaya received the UNCF Anheuser Scholarship.

Saidah Wright, '18

Claflin University administrators and faculty had students like Saidah Wright in mind when they began establishing partnerships with some of the region's leading medical and professional schools. Wright, a member the class of 2018, was the first student to earn a degree through Claflin's 3+4 partnership with the Campbell University College of Pharmacy and Health Sciences. Wright will continue in the program and pursue a doctorate in pharmacy.

The 3+4 program allows students to earn a biochemistry degree after three years at Claflin. The students spend their senior year completing the program at Campbell University, where they earn credits toward a doctorate in pharmacy. The partnership with Campbell is one of several agreements Claflin has with Clemson University, Presbyterian College and the University of South Carolina in pharmacy and other programs.

Wright, an alumnus of the Alice Carson Tisdale Honors College, said she was tremendously impressed with Campbell's College of Pharmacy after attending a health professions readiness and enrichment program for prospective students.

"My ultimate career goal is to work in underserved communities," Wright said. "My interest in a career in healthcare was influenced by my desire to help people. Pharmacy allows me to be the most accessible healthcare provider for patients. This degree will give me that opportunity."

Caleb Green, '20

Business administration major and Alice Carson Tisdale Honors College student Caleb Green is a Gates Millennium Scholarship recipient. Green excelled in the competitive scholarship process and was selected out of the national pool of an estimated 53,000 applicants. “The application and selection process is rigorous and requires hard work and patience,” stated Green. “My dad recommended that I apply and he encouraged me throughout the entire application process,” continued Green.

Established in 1999, The Gates Millennium Scholars program was initially funded by a $1 billion grant from the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation. The United Negro College Fund now administers the scholars program. The program provides financial support, leadership development programs, mentorship opportunities, and additional services to recipients. The Gates Millennium Scholarship is awarded through graduation.

Upon graduation, Green hopes to continue his education in public health and business administration. His ultimate career goal is to assist his father with the family's health and disabilities transportation business. “I’m looking forward to advancing in my major of business administration and expanding my knowledge of public health. The skills that I learn at Claflin will help prepare me for my future career,” stated Green.

Allegra Portee, '19

Mass communications major and UNCF scholar Allegra Portee knows first-hand how UNCF scholarships can impact a student's life. Her scholarship covered portions of her tuition, books and residential expenses. "I am thankful to UNCF for affording me this opportunity to continue my pathway to a degree and I have no financial burdens that will hinder me," says Portee.

The Winnsboro, S.C., native was a recipient of the John Lennon Endowed Scholarship that was established by multimedia artist, singer, songwriter Yoko Ono in memory of her late husband, entertainer John Lennon in partnership with UNCF. The scholarship program is designed to provide scholarship support to students attending one of the 37 UNCF-member institutions and is majoring in mass communications, music or a related field.

"Being a UNCF scholar gives me a sense of confidence. Seeing all of the advantages that UNCF provides for students nationally and witnessing the stature of the scholars inspires me to continue applying for scholarships," she said.

Abraham Kipchirchir Rotich, '18

Abraham Kipchirchir Rotich, a biochemistry major from Eldoret, Kenya, was among the 17 international students in the Class of 2018. He is currently attending Case Western University to pursue a doctorate in chemistry. Rotich was a member of the Alice Carson Tisdale Honors College.

"Claflin provided me the opportunity to work in the biology department as a research assistant with Dr. Nick Panasik," said Rotich. "He taught us to explore new methodologies and techniques to solve problems. I conducted research at Claflin and I also spent two years at the University of Iowa. As a researcher, you expect to be challenged by other researchers, which creates a great teaching and learning environment." Rotich's Honors College thesis was related to one of his undergraduate research projects: "Alternative Production of Lactose-Free Milk for Lactose Intolerant People: Enzyme Redesign."

"I made many friends and I will cherish my time at Claflin," said Rotich. "My professors challenged me to think and really prepared me for graduate school."

Focus100 Scholarship Fund

HELP CHANGE A LIFE TODAY

The FOCUS100 Scholarship Fund provides a crucial financial bridge allowing students to fulfill the dream of graduating from Claflin University. It also helps to eliminate the stress and heartbreak experienced by students forced to terminate degree achievement when personal resources are exhausted.

FOCUS100 Scholarships have made a big impact. In fact, in the past decade, the retention rate for first-year students—a critically important indicator of student success—has enjoyed a marked increase. Energized by this progress, the Board of Visitors has committed to doing more and set a goal of raising at least $1 million to ensure that this fund that has already helped hundreds of students will continue to be available.

Please scan the symbol to your left with a smart phone or tablet using a QR code reader to watch how FOCUS100 helped music major Jamaris Robinson and marketing major Shawnquielle Croskey. You can also watch the video at <https://alumni.claflin.edu/focus100-special-gifts-campaign-2018>

##In-kind Gifts

The World Needs Visionaries.

WAYS TO GIVE

Claflin University has been the beneficiary of valued contributions from many donors. As we look to an even brighter future in this new capital campaign, we reach out to donors to join us, to imagine the possibilities with us. Here are the many ways to give to Claflin University.

CASH

A gift of cash (check or credit card) is the most popular way to give and entitles you to a federal income tax deduction of up to 50 percent of adjusted gross income.

MATCHING GIFTS

You may be able to double, or even triple, the amount of your gift through a matching gift from corporations and businesses. Ask your employer if your company is a matching gift company.

APPRECIATED ASSETS

Your gift of appreciated securities such as stocks, mutual funds and bonds has attractive benefits. An outright gift of long-term appreciated assets avoids capital gains taxes and, in most cases, you earn a charitable income tax deduction equal to the market value of the securities.

REAL PROPERTY

You can give real property, either as a bequest or by a lifetime transfer and realize significant tax benefits. Your gift is transferred by deed and may consist of all of your interest in the property or an undivided fractional interest.

A LIFE INCOME GIFT

A Life Income Gift enables you to make a substantial contribution without financial sacrifice and with income tax and financial benefits. You make an irrevocable transfer of assets as a gift to Claflin University while receiving income for life from the gift.

PERSONAL PROPERTY

Claflin University has been greatly enriched by gifts of personal property, such as rare books, manuscripts, paintings, artifacts and other valuables. Your personal property gift provides a double benefit: a charitable deduction plus avoidance of any potential capital gain tax.

For more information about these and other giving opportunities, please contact Rev. Whittaker V. Middleton, Vice President, Division of Institutional Advancement at Claflin University, 803.535.5312 or at wmiddleton@claflin.edu.
